Navigate India's dynamic and challenging business environment

Start Well

India Entry Strategy

Companies looking to enter India have, historically, achieved higher success when their market entry was well planned, covering in detail both business and regulatory aspects.

Key Pointers while developing an India Entry Strategy

- Country risk analysis: business environment and geographical considerations within India
- Industry analysis: ongoing industry performance, structural forces and legal environment
- Competitor analysis: brand mapping and benchmarking of customer value propositions (CVP)
- Market segmentation and targeting, and recommended CVP
- Development of a marketing mix: deciding on appropriate products for India, feasible channel strategies, price positioning and promotional support
- Identifying best entry vehicle: keeping medium to long term goals and regulatory environment in view, structuring for Joint Ventures, scouting targets for M&A and end to end assistance in Factory set up
- Projected business plan and budgeting
- Mapping regulatory clearances and registrations
- Interim CEO and CFO

Indicative Timelines

- Country Risk Analysis and Industry Analysis 4 weeks
- Competitor Analysis 4 weeks
- Market segmentation and marketing mix 6-8 weeks
- Entry vehicle design including mapping regulatory clearances, J/V or M&A, valuation and tax structuring.... 8-12 weeks
- Projected business plan and Budgeting 2-3 weeks

For a strong and profitable performance, building on the immense opportunities that the Indian market offers, organisations need to have a sustainable competitive advantage and operational effectiveness.

Our Strategy Consulting provides specialized and hands on support both while establishing business in India and during its operational phase. Companies can greatly benefit from the international and local experience that our team brings.

Enhance Operational Performance

Performance Improvement

Companies facing falling margins and volumes, rising costs, brand dilution, product or service quality issues, supply chain and regulatory problems can benefit from a thorough, hands on and operational performance improvement intervention.

- Financial and operating data analysis by business, product and customer segment and by internal organization functions
- Internal resource and capability appraisal and business process analysis
- Analysis of competitors' CVP and key business processes
- Market and customer trends and customer value proposition analysis
- Identification of market opportunities and threats – preferences, technology and business processes
- Business Performance Improvement Plan - recommendations
- Interim and final strategy workshops for organisational alignment
- Periodic re-evaluation of Performance Improvement Plan

While the above Performance Improvement intervention would typically run for 6 to 9 months, indicative timelines are

- Financial and operating data analysis..... 6 weeks
